EXCERPT

Andrea DeMarco, Senior Vice President Investor Relations, Corporate Communications & ESG: Before we go, we'd like to remind everyone that our annual general meeting is coming up on May 20th. This year, we have a number of very important proposals on the ballot including an increase in our authorized share capital. We are extremely appreciative of the support we've received from our shareholders during this extraordinary time, and we are asking for our shareholders' continued support. Please vote and support our Board's recommendations for our annual general meeting proposals so that we have the flexibility to continue to respond to the unprecedented challenges of the pandemic.
